

San Francisco Teens Edition

Clothes

VILLAINS

Definitely a destination for those desirous of the freshest street-wear apparel, Villains offers exclusive clothes from small independent designers to larger name brands. Villains is divided into three separate shops: a cozy little shoe store, the general clothing store, and a particularly high-end fashion store across the street called Villains Vault. 1672 Haight Street (415) 864-1529 • villainssf.com

WESTFIELD SAN FRANCISCO SHOPPING CENTRE

The Westfield San Francisco Centre is right by Union Square. There are a ton of shops here, you are sure to find something you will like, especially considering its location in the heart of downtown San Francisco. 865 Market Street (415) 512-6776 • westfield.com/sanfrancisco

MY ROOMMATE'S CLOSET

You only wish you had a roommate with a closet full of clothes this cool. This store is the next best thing, offering fantastic designer clothes at severely discounted prices. Brands rotate in and out of the store's many available lines, so you'll never know what you can find each time you visit! 3044 Fillmore (415) 447-7703 • myroommatescloset.com

SHOE BIZ

Need some fly kicks? Shoe Biz carries a diverse array of shoes ranging from trendy inexpensive footwear at the original store in the Haight to the sophisticated higher-end styles. Shoe Biz has many locations around San Francisco, but you should definitely check out Super Shoe Biz out. 1446 Haight & 1420 Haight (415) 864-0990 • shoebizsf.com

RECON

Located only in San Francisco, New York, and Tokyo, this hip urban casual clothing store houses cool t-shirt designs, jackets, and other apparel specifically for guys as well as a number of neat vinyl toys. A great place for all your street-wear goods. 1827 Powell Street (415) 837-1909 • reconstore.com

Music

AMOEBA RECORDS

Without a shadow of a doubt, Amoeba Records is one of the best places to shop for music. Here, you will find CDs and vinyls of mega-star pop artists as well as musicians bordering total obscurity. Several times during the week, musicians come to play on a live stage. You will notice a multitude of posters of bands all across the walls – they are available for purchase. No matter what you're looking for, chances are you'll find it at Amoeba. As you leave, make sure to check out the graffiti on the side! 1855 Haight Street (415) 831-1200 amoebamusic.com

Anywhere, anytime in San Francisco you can find great music of all sorts. The following are just a few venues where you can find some of your favorite performers play...

SLIM'S

A music venue/bar for all types of music, R&B legend Boz Scaggs opened up this venue in 1988. An open floor makes up most of Slim's, with a bar, upstairs lounge, and a stage on the sides. Slim's has just what a music venue needs for a rockin' evening. 333 11th Street (415) 255-0333 • slims-sf.com

WARFIELD

The SF Weekly Warfield has housed many famous live performances. The seating makes for as much as 3000 people, making the venue large enough for a hearty show and intimate enough to be close to the performers. Make sure you look up when you are inside because the ceiling is gorgeous! 982 Market (415) 567-2060

THE FILLMORE

The Fillmore is a great venue with a colorful history. It was especially popular during the sixties when greats like Janis Joplin and The Grateful Dead graced the stage. This isn't to say that The Fillmore is old and outdated. Popular bands and artist perform here all the time. Ornate chandeliers and the numerous posters will definitely show you this venue's distinct feel. 1805 Geary Boulevard (415) 346-6000 thefillmore.com

GREAT AMERICAN MUSIC HALL

A large number of bands from across the nation enjoy playing at this San Francisco venue. You can definitely see the deep history of this place by noticing the elegant balconies and interesting ceiling frescoes of the 1900's. 859 O'Farrell Street (415) 885-0750 • gamh.com

BOTTOM OF THE HILL

At the bottom of Potrero Hill (duh!), this is a pretty chill venue, plus it includes a sweet pool table. B.O.T.H. is definitely a cozy place; rising bands tend to start out at this venue. If you ever see a show at this place, and the band you saw made it big, you'll be able to tell your friends, "Yeah, I knew about them wayyy before you did!" 1233 17th Street (415) 621-4455 • bottomofthehill.com

Dining

THE CANVAS

The Canvas is a visually pleasing café/bar/haven by Golden Gate Park. Various artists showcase their paintings across the inside walls. If you're lucky and you happen to visit in the evening, you may be witness to a local stand-up comedian in the spotlight or a short film against the walls. Highly decorative, and a great place to eat! 1200 9th Ave (415) 504-0060 • thecanvasgallery.com

CREPEVINE - CREPES GALORE!

Crepevine is a relaxing homely place where college kids usually eat and chill out to finish their term papers late at night. You will certainly please your taste buds at this creperie; all sorts of crepes with all sorts of cheeses. The staff is always accommodating. A very busy but warm and inviting place! 624 Irving Street (415)-681-5858

LA TAQUERIA

The place to be for all your burrito and taco cravings. As you enter, you will see a large mural of Mexican culture that adorns the wall. There are hundreds of taquerias in San Francisco, this one however, is distinctive by its deliciously packed burritos. While you are at it, take some time to check out more of the Latin culture down the rest of Mission Street. 2889 Mission Street (415) 285-7117

KIKI'S JAPANESE RESTAURANT – SUSHI!

Kiki's is a wonderful place to dine. As you walk through the slanted door, you will find colorful walls adorned with images from the Japanese anime series Totoro. Good, colorful sushi at a reasonably low price! 1269 9th Avenue (415) 661-5522 • kikisushi.com

NORTH BEACH PIZZA

The ULTIMATE in San Francisco pizza. Of course, pasta, ravioli, and an assortment of other Italian foods are available, but, as the name suggests, pizza is their specialty. What else is there to say? Good. Good pizza. Perhaps after eating their food, you may want to check out the dominantly Italian neighborhood where the name comes from, North Beach! 1499 Grant Avenue (at Union St.) (415) 433-2444 northbeachpizza.com

MEL'S DRIVE IN

First of all, Mel's Drive In is not actually a drive-in. What separates this restaurant from all other 50's-themed restaurants, apart from their delicious burgers, is that one of their restaurants was used to film the movie American Graffiti. Though that particular establishment is long gone, the food and environment of this diner make for an all around great place to eat. Check it! 2165 Lombard Street (415) 921-3039 melsdrive-in.com

Entertainment

SAN FRANCISCO ZOO

In the Sunset District, a little corner of residential San Francisco, the San Francisco Zoo houses a menagerie of animals and a number of particularly unique ones too. Make sure to check out the new African Savanna, where you can find some more interesting critters, like the kudu, zebra, and giraffe. 1 Zoo Road (415) 753-7080 • sfzoo.org

CASTRO THEATRE

Upon seeing this icon of the 20's you'll find yourself strangely reminiscing of a time long past. The Castro Theatre is very capacious with quite an exotic architectural flavor. A Wurlitzer organ always plays before each show and during intermissions. Here, you can check out new indie films or watch great movies from all eras. Definitely a must see!!! 429 Castro Street (415) 621-6120 • thecastrotheatre.com

GREEN APPLE BOOKS

For the bibliophiles, Green Apple Books is the place for you. Frequently touted as one of the best bookstores in the Bay Area, two floors of this Clement Street alcove of new and used books will surely keep you entertained. There are many many categories that you can peer into at Green Apple Books: philosophy, metaphysics and new age, and even do-it-yourself books! 506 Clement Street (415) 387-2272 greenapplebooks.com

TUTTI FRUTTI

This little store in the Inner Sunset has a wide variety of little doodads and random objects. Basically a toy and card store, if you're having trouble finding a particular gift for a friend, chances are that Tutti Frutti will have the exact type of toy you are looking for. 718 Irving Street (415) 661-8504

THE METREON

This "entertainment center" has become, more than anything else, a popular locale to watch movies. Not to mention, the Metreon houses the west coast's largest digital IMAX theater. Be sure to check out the video game arcade, providing hip and old school games alike. 101 4th Street (415) 369-6000 • metreon.com

Sports/Outdoors

YERBA BUENA GARDENS

Just behind the Metreon you'll find an array of pathways that will lead you to a number of locations. Directly behind the Metreon is The Esplanade as well as the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial, a fifty foot high waterfall that you can walk under and read various inscriptions. Gardens, memorials, and various works of art adorn the beautiful Gardens. Within a several block radius of the Yerba Buena Gardens, you'll also find many other interesting locations such as a skating rink, a bowling alley, and the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art. 221 4th Street • yerbabenagardens.com

SF GIANTS AT AT&T PARK

Previously known as Pac Bell Park and SBC Park, AT&T Park is the place to be for baseball by the Bay unless, of course, you would prefer to cheer on the Oakland A's across the Bay instead. Speaking of which, if you sit in the wayback of the stadium, you will have a wonderful picturesque view of the San Francisco Bay. If you visit San Francisco and when the Los Angeles Dodgers are in town, drop all your shopping bags and head to AT&T Park now. The Dodgers remain the Giants' top rival. 24 Willie Mays Plaza (415) 972-2000 • giants.mlb.com

GOLDEN STATE WARRIORS

Enjoy watching a game of basketball at the Oakland Coliseum. It's a ways out of San Francisco, but you'll certainly be in for a treat once you are there. The Golden State Warriors are the closest basketball team around San Francisco. 7000 Coliseum Way, Oakland (510) 986-2200 • nba.com/warriors

SF 49'ERS

If tossing the pigskin is more of your thing, then come to Monster Park, which houses our one and only San Francisco 49'ers. The 49'ers have won the most championship trophies out of all the teams in the NFL. (Thank you, Joe Montana) 602 Jamestown Avenue (415) 467-1994 • sf49ers.com
